UNION VETERANS' UNION.

W. S. Hancock Command No. 1 gave a camp-fire and house-warming social Thursday evening at G. A. R. Hall, Seventh and I. streets. The hall was decorated with bunting from floor to ceiling. An old camp-kettle swung on a tripod of fence rails from the ceiling in the center of the room, and from it escaped the rich fumes of old Java. A beautiful bank of flowers in its centre, the badge of the honorary membership, graced the Commander's station. The orchestra opened promptly at 8 with patriotic selections, followed by an address of welcome from Col. John Finn, who told of the great good the union was constantly doing in securing employment for its members willing to work, and the assistance rendered those in distress. The violin solo by Miss Agnes B. Dillon, piano by Miss Rose C. C. Dillon, showed fine execution and careful study. The recitation by Miss Eleanor Simmonds and solo by Miss Izora Patterson were applauded to the echo. The cornet solo by J. Frank Sheridan, a song by Mr. C. E. Rice, recitations by Misses Sibley and Madge Stalley, and the Arion Quartette were all good. Past Commander-in-chief M. A. Dillon conferred the honorary member's degree on twenty-five ladies and gentlemen. The command were in their neat new uniforms and looked every inch the war-worn veterans that they are. Dancing commenced at 10 o'clock, and among the dancers were pretty and beautifully dressed girls, and young soldier boys of the various militia companies in uniforms. The affair was a brilliant success.

A New Diplomat Who Talks.

New York World.

A good story is told on Gen. Batcheller, who now represents this Government at the moribund court of Lisbon, and who passed through New York recently on his way to Bern, Switzerland, where he has another special diplomatic errand to do for Uncle Sam. Gen. Batcheller is said by insiders to have been forced out of his post as First Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under Windom because he "talked too much." So they let him down easy with an offer of the Portuguese mission. A well-known correspondent, who had never met Gen. Batcheller, was asked by his journal to interview him before he sailed, and went to the hotel of the Minister to Portugal, not a little afraid that something would happen to prevent his getting a "talk." The General said he was in a hurry and could only say a word or two. The correspondent was so anxious to get that word or two down accurately that he pulled a writing-pad and a pencil from his pocket and started in, long hand. When Gen. Batcheller said "Good-bye" the correspondent wiped the perspiration from his brow, shook his cramped fingers, and gazing on a pile of MSS. a foot high, said gently, "Why, he does talk; doesn't he?"

From Champagne to Beer.

New York Star.

Trouble in Wall street does not affect the financial public alone. On the contrary, if the brokers and their customers have been having a hard time, it is reflected at once in their dealings with the tradespeople throughout the Stock Exchange district. One of the first industries to feel the effects of a bear market on the pockets of the speculative class is the restaurants. The average Wall-street man can come down from champagne lunches to a sandwich and a glass of beer with a celebrity that is truly astonishing. Within the past month or so a good many men have made this disagreeable but economical change in their daily habits. Another interest which suffers from the same cause is, strange to say, the barber shops. Talking to tonsorial artists I know in that part of town, I am informed that the patronage of their shops falls off considerably if the stock market is in a bad way. The regular customers among the brokers themselves do not decrease much, but the floating population of the street disappears as if by magic.

The Best Blood Medicine

So say Leading Physicians and Druggists, and their opinion is endorsed by thousands cured by it of Scrofula, Eczema, Erysipelas, and other diseases of the blood.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla has won its reputation by years of valuable service to the community. It is the best."—R. S. Lang, Druggist, 212 Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass.

Dr. W. P. Wright, Paw Paw Ford, Tenn., says: "In my practice, I invariably prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla for chronic diseases of the blood."

Dr. R. R. Boyle, Third and Oxford sts., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "For two years I have prescribed Ayer's Sarsaparilla in numerous instances, and I find it highly efficacious in the treatment of all disorders of the blood."

L. M. Robinson, Pharmacist, Sabina, O., certifies: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has always been a great seller. My customers think there is no blood-purifier equal to it."

"For many years I was afflicted with scrofulous running sores, which, at last became so bad the doctors advised amputating one of my legs to save my life. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon saw improvement. After using about two dozen bottles the sores were healed. I continue to take a few bottles of this medicine each year, for my blood, and am no longer troubled with sores. I have tried other reputed blood-purifiers, but none does so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—D. A. Robinson, Neal, Kansas.
